

THREE RODS

There once lived a mighty king Svätopluk. He had three sons. When he was very old, he called his son. He gives one rod to each. Then he tells them to break the rods. It was easy for them. So he gives them three rods in a kick.

However, this was not very easy for them. They fail to.

Their father wants to explain to them that if they were still together after his death, no one would hurt them.

But they did not listen to him. They quarreled, and their kingdom fell apart and the other kings overcame them.

for

It is always so – if we are together, we will overcome the impossible.